

Psychic Medium Lauren Bortolami Robbins to be Featured on CUTV News Radio

MANSFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS, UNITED STATES, August 29, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Everything we've been taught to believe suggests that what psychics mediums claim to be able to do is impossible. And yet, according to recent surveys, one in seven Americans has consulted a psychic medium. And a majority of Americans – 57 percent - say they believe in psychic phenomena.

Whether you believe or not, it cannot be disputed there is value in the services they provide. Most psychic mediums possess a deep compassion and a desire to help others no matter what circumstances they may be struggling with.

“What most people get out of a psychic medium or an angel reading experience is the ability to find some closure,” says psychic medium Lauren Bortolami Robbins. “I find that that's why psychic mediums are so popular: people want closure; and they want to believe.”

I give people a personal service to help them grow and change the path of their life.”

Robbins is an evidential psychic medium and an angel messenger, recognized as one of the best psychics in the country. Named Best American Psychics by Voices Across the Veil, and an endorsed research medium for the Afterlife Program, Robbins offers psychic medium and angel readings over the phone, in person, and voicemail, as well as educational training through her books like "Who Are You?" and her online classes.

“I give people a personal service to help them grow and change the path of their life,” says Robbins. “It's not just a reading for me, it puts them on their path of what they need to know to help themselves.”

Robbins says she discovered her medium abilities at the age of two years old. Stricken with permanent double-vision, she believes her left eye has given her access to the higher vibrations of the spiritual realm.

“My abilities became stronger and stronger until the presences became very strong,” recalls Robbins. “I started have precognitive visions and dreams. By the time I graduated high school, I was a psychic and a medium.”

Robbins is an evidential psychic medium. She does cold readings; she doesn't want to know any information ahead of time.

"When I'm doing a psychic reading I'm accessing the higher self for the person I'm reading, and when I'm providing a medium reading, I'm connecting to a loved one on the other side," explains Robbins. "I receive images, messages, feelings, and other impressions.

Robbins says she believes the pain and trauma in her life was meant to lead her down the path to help other people through what she considers "God's work."

"You have to try a reading to believe one way or the other," says Lauren. "There's no other way, really, but to experience it yourself.
